Prolongs your grill pans life

By using the soft soak your grid does not get damaged as it would using traditional scrubs, brushes and cleaning products. The method of leaving the grid to soak in this soft protected environment loosens food and hard to remove burnt-on residue without the need to scrub and scrape, which can damage your grid's coating.

Easy clean

Soft Soaks are Food Grade silicone, the grease and residue just slides off with the aid of soap. A hygienic material that lasts.

Fits and protects your grill

Every Soft Soak is specially designed for it's corresponding Cadac grid size. It contains the grid and water perfectly, ensuring coverage and complete soaking.

Stackable and foldable for storage

The unique soft but durable silicone rubber allows the product to be bent and folded. The end user can wrap it around a grid for storage, or stack it with the others.

How to properly use the Soft Soak with your grid & pans

1. Pour hot, soapy water into Soft Soak
2. Place grid upside down
3. Soak for 60 minutes to ensure all the food has lifted properly
4. Easy clean with a cloth

CLEANING & MAINTENANCE

How do I maintain the CADAC cooking surfaces?
Most CADAC cooking surfaces (such as Paella Pans & BBQ Grids) have our GreenGrill ceramic coating. Always use wooden or plastic utensils to avoid damaging this coating. Only pre-heat for 2-3 minutes and cook on low-medium heat. This not only protects your grill but also reduces gas consumption. Using oils with a high smoke point, such as rapeseed or vegetable oil, will also help maintain your grill. Avoid spray oil and olive oil as these can damage the coating.

How do I maintain my CADAC barbecue?

To enjoy your CADAC product for a long time, we advise you thoroughly clean it after each use. Use a full-length, UV-resistant cover when you are not using your BBQ. Note that our barbecue covers are water resistant but are not 100% waterproof.

During winter storage it's recommended to store the barbecue in the provided carry bag (camping BBQ's), in a dry garage or shed.

How do I clean my BBQ?

You can clean the surfaces in (warm) water with a soft sponge or dishwashing brush. The easiest way to clean your ceramic cook surfaces is with the CADAC GreenGrill Brush. For Grid cleaning the Soft Soaks are recommended as they provide a protected environment to loosen food and burnt on debris without the need to scrub and scrape the grill coating. For the enamel and chrome parts of the BBQ you can also use the CADAC barbecue cleaner. Never use scourers or abrasives as these can damage the coating.

How do I clean the fat pan?
While you cook most of the cooking juices/ grease will drop down to the removabe pan pan below. Fill the trough in the fat pan with some water before cooking to make cleaning easier. If you don't remove the fat from the fat pan regularly, you will increase the chance of 'flaring' and damaging the enamel coating.

How do I perform a gas leak test?
We recommend performing a gas leak test every time you use the BBQ, especially after it has been in storage for a prolonged length of time, or had component parts replaced. The most reliable way to perform a gas leak test is by smearing the joints with a soapy water solution. If bubbles appear your connection may not be secure. It is also recommended to replace the gas hose every 5 years or at the first sign of deterioration. Check the hose regularly and replace immediately at the first sign of cracks, damage or porosity.
